Year R - Everyday Super Heroes

Dear Parents/Carers,

We are excited to start a new topic in January 2020 'Every day heroes, what makes a hero?' Within this topic, we are hoping to explore different jobs and the impact they have on people or the world around them.

We are very lucky at Court Lane Infant School to have many parents with a wide range of jobs and skills. We would like to know if any of you could share information about your jobs with the children in Year R and how these may impact others and the world around you.

We would like to invite any parents/carers to come in and speak to the Year R children during the w/c 13th January. If this is something you are interested in, we would be delighted if you could fill in the slip below.

We are fortunate to already have contact with the police and look forward to any other offers that could be made this would be gratefully appreciated.

Yours sincerely

Miss Evans
