Dear Parents/Carers

8th February 2023

World Book Day Celebrations
Friday 3rd March 2023

On Friday 3rd March Court Lane Infant School will be celebrating World Book Day. This is to share our love for reading and to look further at our literary heritage. This year we are asking the children to dress up as a book character or in pyjamas to celebrate reading stories. Throughout the day the children will be taking part in many exciting activities that link with reading, some examples are as follows...

- Creating book marks
- Completing book reviews
- Reading their favourite stories
- Taking part in drama and role play activities
- Making puppets
- Learning about different book characters
- Making props and hats for their favourite book characters and sharing these.

More examples of activities that you could take part in at home are attached.

Book Tokens

This year the World Book Day £1 tokens will be given out to all children on Friday 3rd March. These can be used to purchase the £1 books published specifically for World Book Day or can be put towards books that cost more than £1. Books can be purchased from many booksellers please see the information on the World Book day site. www.worldbookday.com

We hope that you enjoy celebrating World Book Day 2023 with us. Please try to complete some of the challenges below and upload pictures to Tapestry. There are many other exciting and free activities available on the World Book day website. Please use the following link if you would like to have a look. www.worldbookday.com

World Book Day Costume Donations

If you have any World Book Day costumes that you no longer need and would like to donate to CLACA please pass these to your child's class teacher by Monday 20th February. CLACA will be organising a playground sale after school on Tuesday 21st February.

Yours sincerely

Lucy Wilson-Woodham
